Dear Mr. Milner,

In your letter of the 23rd you ask if you may use or reprint some of the information in my books. Yes, of course.

If you want to use some of the photographs, if they are copied with an offset camera it can eliminate the screen added in printing, part of the photoengraving process.

However, I do not promise an endorsement of your work. I have never done this and do not want to begin now. Also, you may reach conclusions with which I may not agree.

Good luck!

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
